Why Partner with us?

From the moment a family first learns their child is going to be differently abled to the moment that same child begins school and then goes on to graduate, we are there.

To Support, To Educate, and To Advocate

We are there for the celebrations, the milestones, the tough days and the great ones...providing the tools, techniques, and services our members need to reach their full potential.

We fundraise to ensure our members have the opportunity to live and to thrive in their local community and 100% of funds raised stay in the Kentuckiana area.

Who We Influence

36,000 Subscribers

We actively communicate with our subscribers, informing them of upcoming events, member success stories, and other relatable content.

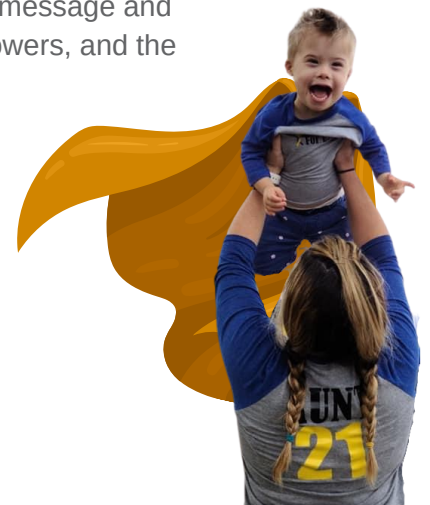

54,000 + Social Media Followers & Growing

We engage regularly across various social media platforms. We use social media posts, videos, contests, and content such as event promotion and member success stories to ensure our message and our memories are visible to our sponsors, donors, followers, and the families we service.
