

Going to the Columbus Buddy Walk Social Story

The Columbus Buddy Walk is a fun place where family and friends come to celebrate me and my friends with Down syndrome.

My family walks in a parade cheering for me.

People carry signs with my name
on them.

There are mascots like Brutus walking around giving high fives and hugs.

There are cheerleaders who cheer for me!

I might even see a superhero!

At the end of the walk,
I get a medal.

There are other fun things to do at the Buddy Walk too...like jump on a bounce house!

Or make balloon animals.

Or get lunch from a food truck.

There are a lot of people who come to celebrate me and my friends with Down syndrome at the Buddy Walk.
