Empower. Connect. Support.

People often say they give in order to “make a difference.” This phrase means different things to different people. By supporting the North Carolina Down Syndrome Alliance (NCDSA), it means you WILL be making a difference by helping us fulfill our mission to empower, connect, and support the lifespan of individuals with Down syndrome, their families, and the community through outreach, advocacy, and education in North Carolina. Your partnership enables us to do such things as offer workshops for parents and people with Down syndrome, provide Welcome Baby Bags with vital resources for new and expectant parents, support a diverse set of Community Groups, and fund special events like our Statewide conference, iCan Bike camp, and MOMS’ & DADS’ night out.
